Subject: Nondiscrimination in Services

To: Foxdale Village Residents/Resident Representatives

From: Rich Lysle, CEO

Admissions, the provisions of services and referrals of residents shall be made without regard to race, color, religious creed, disability, ancestry, national origin (including limited English proficiency), age or sex.

Foxdale Village is open to all applicants/residents regardless of race, color, national origin, familial status, ancestry, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, handicap, or disability.

Program Services shall be made accessible to eligible persons with disabilities through the most practical and economically feasible methods available. These methods include, but are not limited to, equipment redesign, the provision of aides and the use of alternative service delivery locations. Structural modifications shall be considered only as a last resort among available methods.

Any resident/individual who believes they have been discriminated against may file a complaint of discrimination with any of the following:
